

Exploring the Spectrum

Exploring the Spectrum provides training and education for professionals, agencies, and service providers who support Autistic individuals.

Training that builds the skills, tactics and tools that can help employers better support Autistic individuals in their employment journey.

Our online training courses include:

- Supporting Autistic Mental Health in the Workplace
- Employment Supports and Autism Training
- Workplace and Employer Training

Connect with us today at:
www.exploringthespectrum.ca

Exploring the Spectrum is a Social Enterprise

Exploring the Spectrum and Autism Nova Scotia can work with you and your employees to help build a more inclusive workplace.

We will customize and tailor content to meet those specific needs, challenges and questions.

Every organization or sector is unique and you confront specific challenges and needs that we can help with.

As a leader in Autism education, Autism Nova Scotia will come to your workplace and hold education and training sessions with your employees.

Contact Us

Autism Nova Scotia Bedford

1550 Bedford HWY. Suite 302 Sun Tower

Telephone: 902-446-4995

Email: ETS@autismns.ca

Inclusion  Respect  Collaboration  Courage  Acceptance

Training for Employers on Inclusive Employment and Autism

Being an inclusive employer means understanding the needs of your business, your employees and the workforce. This pamphlet is a resource to help employers find education that supports them in this journey.

Employer and Workplace Education: Autism Works

Autism Nova Scotia is pleased to support employers in their work to create more inclusive workplaces for their employees with autism. If you are an Autistic employee, or an employer working to better support, adapt or accommodate in your workplace for Autistic employees, contact Autism Works to learn more about our Employer and Workplace Education sessions.

Contact us at:

AutismWorks@autismns.ca

Ready Willing & Able - The Inclusive Workplace

The Inclusive Workplace is a series of free resources, webinars and education sessions designed to help:

- Businesses embrace inclusive hiring
- Workplaces become environments where Autistic employees or employees with an intellectual disability work alongside employees without disabilities
- Employment agencies provide innovative, flexible supports

Visit The Inclusive Workplace site if you are a:

- Job seeker or employee - to find and keep good jobs
- Businesses - to learn why you should hire inclusively, and how to do it
- Employment agencies - looking for resources on how to better support job seekers and employees reach their employment goals

Learn more at:

www.theinclusiveworkplace.ca

READY WILLING & ABLE

The Inclusive
Workplace

Supporting Autistic Mental Health in the Workplace

Supporting Autistic Mental Health in the Workplace is a free online, self-paced training course that introduces learners to mental health challenges that Autistic employees and job seekers often face in the workplace.

Visit the ETS eCampus to learn more and register for this course:

www.campus.autismnovascotia.ca